ABOUT US

Mar Baselios College of Education is a self-financing college, run by the Minority community of the Catholic Diocese of Bathery. The teacher education was in progress from 1992 onwards. It was established in 2005 and is affiliated to the University of Calicut and recognized by the NCTE as per order No.F.KL/SEC/N/242/SRO/NCTE/2004-2005/785 dt.23/02/05. It is the brain child of His Beatitude Moran Mor Cyril Baselios Catholios, Major Arch Bishop of the Malankara Catholic Church and the college is patronized by His Excellency Most. Rev. Dr. Joseph Mar Thomas, Bishop of Bathery. The College is housed in a spacious multi-storeyed complex on a large campus on the Gudalur-Ootty road, just one kilometer from the Town. There are hostels for men and women students run by the college. The Corporate Educational Agency of the Malankara Catholic Diocese started this institution of teacher education to cater to the educational needs of the people of this backward district, irrespective of caste, creed and religion. The management is committed to the overall development of the trainee teachers who seek admission in this college and to transforming them as fully developed young men and women with a total commitment towards the noble mission of teaching, when they step out of this college. By upholding the motto "Lighted to Lighten" we outfit the academic excellence with the principles of social and moral ethics.

LOCATION

Mar Baselios College of Education is located in Sulthan Bathery, a town in the Wayanad district of Kerala, India. Wayanad is known for its scenic beauty, lush green landscapes and is a popular tourist destination. It is located in the north eastern part of Kerala. Sulthan Bathery is accessible by road and is close to the Kerala Karnataka border enhancing its connectivity to cities like Mysore and Bangalore in Karnataka. The institution focuses on teacher education and providing Bachelor's Degree in Education (B.Ed.) program to equip aspiring teachers with the necessary skills and knowledge.

LOGO

The emblem of Mar Baselios college of education is a symbol of the institution's values and mission. The emblem collectively represents the institution's commitment to comprehensive education, encompassing academics, sports, and moral values under the guidance of the Church of North India Shield Shape: The emblem is in the shape of a shield, which symbolizes protection and tradition.

Symbols Inside the Shield-Open Book : This often symbolizes knowledge, education, and the spread of wisdom.Flame/Lamp: This represents enlightenment, the pursuit of knowledge, and the guiding light of education.Sports Equipment : A soccer ball, cricket bat, and possibly other sports gear indicate the importance of physical education and extra curricular activities.

Science Equipment: Test tubes and flasks suggest a focus on scientific education and experimentation. "Lighted to Lighten"- This phrase likely signifies the institution's mission to educate and enlighten students so they can, in turn, enlighten others. Text: "Church of North India Educational Council, Diocese of Bathery"

This indicates that the educational institution is affiliated with the Church of North India and falls under the jurisdiction of the Diocese of Bathery. The Church of North India (CNI) is a significant Christian denomination in India.

MOTTO

"Lighted to Lighten"

In the serene landscapes of education, where Knowledge meets character. We believe that quality is the goal of an eternal quest through the corridors of human history. We envision a future where every teacher student emerges as a well-rounded individual equipped with knowledge, values and skills to contribute meaningfully to society. Hence we march forward with enhanced vigour and vitality upholding the motto "Lighted to Lighten".

VISION

This vision may involve fostering a culture of academic excellence, innovation in teaching methodologies, and a commitment to continuous improvement. Additionally, the college may envision graduates who are not only proficient in their subject matter but also possess strong moral character, empathy, and a deep sense of social responsibility, ready to contribute to building a more just and compassionate society.

MISSION

The mission of our institution offering a B.Ed program could be to nurture educators who are not only academically competent but also deeply grounded in their faith and committed to serving as compassionate and ethical role models for their students. This involves integrating Catholic teachings and values into the curriculum and educational practices, fostering holistic development, a sense of spirituality and moral responsibility, and preparing teachers to address the diverse needs of learners while upholding principles of justice, equity, and solidarity.

CLUBS & ASSOCIATIONS

○ Chrysalis-The English Club

Students' creative work is housed in this literary nook as an addendum. It is frequently used as a platform for seminars, movie reviews, competitions, and other events, as well as for the release of undiscovered literary talents.

○ Equinox- The Maths Clubs

It runs a number of events, including creative programmes, math-related exhibitions, interclass competitions, and interschool math quizzes. This group seeks to increase interest in mathematics among all students, foster more collaboration between the public and practical teaching institutions, and acquaint them with college operations.

○ Heurisco-The Physical Science Club

The science club's mission is to prepare the next generation of scientists. The group hosts debates, field trips, quiz contests, seminars, and manuscript publication among its many activities.

○ Petrichor-The Natural Science Club

The various activities of the club are conducting seminars, project competitions, inter-school poster competitions, exhibitions, herbal garden arrangement etc.

○ Solace-The Social Science Club

The Archives is a place of collection of historical documents. The intention of the club is to popularize and make the subject interesting through the different activities of the club.

○ Haritham-The Nature Club

The members of the Nature Club are led with the motive of providing awareness towards environmental protection. Various community awareness programmes, seminars, film shows, Plant of the Week programme and exhibitions are henceforth arranged.

○ Health Care Club

The aim of the Health Care Club is to develop health awareness of personal hygiene, communicable and non-communicable diseases to teacher trainees and thereafter for their future career. Health care club organizes awareness classes on Breast cancer and health and hygiene.

○ Parent Teacher Association

As the duration of the course is one year, PTA meetings are organized every year. The association includes all the faculty members and parents of all students. An Executive committee is selected from the members of the PTA to ensure smoothness of administration.

○ Alumni Association

An Alumni Association is functioning in the college. A nominal registration fee is collected from students for life membership. It provides opportunities for the old students to keep in contact with the alma mater and to interact commendably with the institution.

○ NSS (National Service Scheme)

National Service Scheme (NSS) is a voluntary association under the Ministry of Youth affairs and Sports, Government of India in which students from Colleges, Universities and Plus Two levels work towards creating a campus community linkage. NSS enables students to develop their personality and strengthen their character. A vibrant National Service Scheme unit is functioning in the college. NSS was inaugurated on 18th March 2022 and conducted various socially remarkable programmes.

IQAC

Typically, the NAAC-recommended post-accreditation quality sustenance measure is the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC). Although this college has not yet submitted an accreditation application, an IQAC has been established to guarantee excellence in every way. The IQAC's primary goals are:

1. To guarantee ongoing enhancements across the board for the institution's operations.
2. To reassure all parties involved in higher education-including students, parents, faculty, staff, funding agencies, and the general public-that the institution will be held accountable for its integrity and quality. The following individuals make up the Quality Advisory Committee, which will direct the IQAC's operations:

PLEDGE

India is my country,
all Indians are my brothers and sisters.
I Love my country, and I am proud of its rich and varied heritage.
I shall always strive to be worthy of it.
I shall give my parents,
teachers and all my elders respect
and treat every one with courtesy.
To my country and my people
i pledge my devotion.
In their well being and prosperity
alone lies my happiness.
